Offence
Creating space
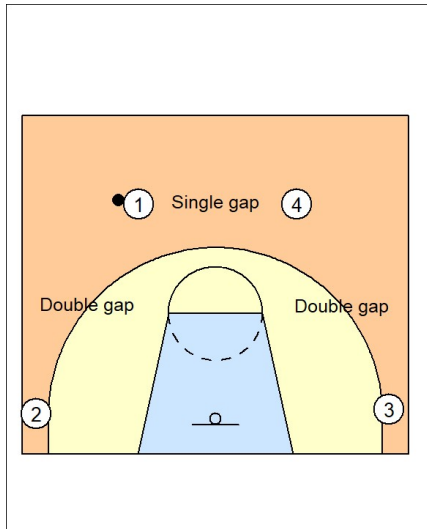

1) Single gaps

Single gaps between attackers, good but not great spacing, defenders can help and recover on dribble penetration.
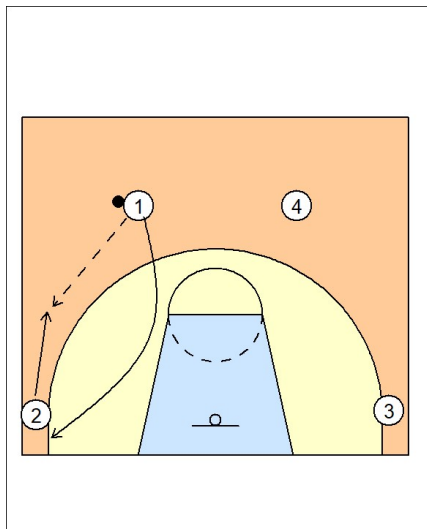

2) Double gaps

a)

2 and 3 move down to the corners, creating double gaps, harder for defenders to help and recover.
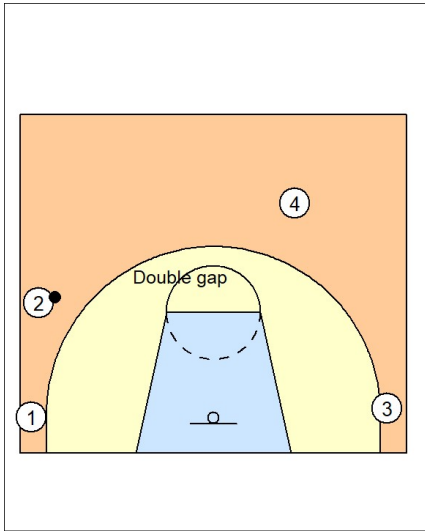

Still a single gap up top.

b)

1 passes to 2 and cuts to the ballside corner, creating a double gap for 2.
